

Carework – Level E3 Award in Health and Care

Course overview

The course aims to provide learners with knowledge and understanding and an introduction to the skills required in health and Care to support progression to employment to an apprenticeship or to further study at a higher level. There are a huge number of employment opportunities within Adult Social Care and this course could be the start of a new career.

Who is it for?

This course is ideal for individuals of whom English is a second language, or those who attained levels at E1/E2 in the functional skills assessment during the introduction course.

Have an interest in Adult Social Care, have compassion, good communicator, and a desire to help others less fortunate.

The course helps to develop your language and writing skills, using a range of assessment methods.

You will need to have completed the Introduction to Health and Social Care course.

What will I study?

You will cover the following topics.

- Working in Health and Social Care and Children's and young people's settings
- Effective communication
- Health and Safety in Health, Social Care

Assessment method

Throughout the course you will receive feedback from your tutor. You will be assessed using various assessment methods, including your portfolio of evidence (which will be assessed by the accrediting organisation, on-line and paper-based assessments, individual and group work. You will also learn the skills to self reflect and evaluate your progress.

Entry requirements

Successful completion of Introduction to Health and Social Care
Attained minimum Level E1/E2 in functional skills assessment in English

What should I bring with me?

You will need to take notes so bring along your preferred tools such as pen and paper or an electronic device.

Key information

Where possible this course will take place on site with social distancing measures in place.
In the event of a lockdown, the course will take place online via MS Teams.

Possible next steps

Following the successful completion of this course, you will be supported to enrol on to the most suitable level course for you.

Level E3 Certificate in Health and Care- Level 1 Preparing to work in Adult Social Care - Level 1 Childcare – Level 1 Preparing to work in Schools

Contact us

Our friendly staff can give you further advice and support.

email: adultcollegeenquiries@lbbd.gov.uk

call: 020 8270 4722