

ESOL Pre-entry / Foundation: Speaking and Listening

Course overview

Improving your English will help you to find a job, get a better job, prepare you for further study and apply for British citizenship. This course will help you develop your speaking and listening skills for everyday life in the UK. Improving these skills will enable you to communicate effectively with others or help your children with their homework.

This course is for people who:

- do not have English as their first language
- have no, or very little, English
- speak English but cannot read or write in the language
- have English skills at pre-entry / foundation level

What will I study?

- Identifying and extending existing skills and language
- Developing communication skills
- Increasing confidence in using everyday English
- Identifying and achieving your personal learning goals
- Working towards a qualification (Foundation level)
- How to have a conversation
- Parent teacher meetings
- How to buy things in a shop

Assessment method

- Question and answer
- Self and Learner assessment
- Paired, group, individual and online tasks
- Homework
