

SEND Maths A

Course overview

This course is for learners with learning difficulties or disabilities who want to improve their maths and number skills. The course is designed to help you to gain greater confidence and understanding in maths in your everyday life and work.

What will I study?

Some of the topics you will cover:

- Working with whole numbers up to 100
- Telling the time
- Learning through the use of maths games and matching activities
- Using a calculator to check and solve maths problems

Assessment method

Various assessment methods, including on-line and paper-based assessments, individual, group work and various maths activities.

Entry requirements

No previous qualifications are needed
Recognise numbers up to 10

What should I bring with me?

You will need to bring a pen, pencil, paper, simple calculator and a folder to each lesson.

Key information

Where possible this course will take place on site with social distancing measures in place. In the event of a lockdown, the course will take place online via MS Teams and telephone support.

Possible next steps

Following the successful completion of this course, you will be supported to enrol on to the most suitable level course for you.

Contact us

Our friendly staff can give you further advice and support.

email: adultcollegeenquiries@lbbd.gov.uk

call: 020 8270 4722