

SEND: Getting Around For Volunteering And Work

Course overview

When thinking about volunteering or working travel can be a barrier to where you work or volunteer. This course will further build your confidence around traveling safely. If you have taken the other 2 Getting Around courses this one may be your next step. We cover how traveling for work is different to traveling for pleasure and is aimed at

What will I study?

You will:

- Plan a journey when you need to arrive at a set time
- Identify where you may want to work or volunteer
- Find the best travel route for you from home to work
- Discuss what might be needed for a work journey
- Plan a trip to a workplace

Assessment method

- You will also take part in Q&A sessions and discussion to confirm your understanding.
- There will be classroom activities which you will also receive verbal and written feedback for.
- You will put together a folder of work that will receive written and verbal feedback.

Entry requirements

- Listen & respond to other people within the class, joining in with discussions and activities
- Follow requests and instructions containing 2 key words, signs or symbols
- Make requests independently, for example by vocalising, signing or using symbols, share ideas or preferences
- Indicate an object or person using one or two key words, signs or symbols

What should I bring with me?

An A4 folder, A4 notepad and a pen.

Key information

Where possible this course will take place on site with social distancing measures in place. In the event of a lockdown, the course will take place online via MS Teams or via a remote learning pack.

Possible next steps

Following the successful completion of this course, you will be supported to enroll on to the most suitable level course for you. You might like to attend our other Getting Around courses and our Preparing for Work course.

Contact us

Our friendly staff can give you further advice and support.

email: adultcollegeenquiries@lbbd.gov.uk

call: 020 8270 4722

