

Employability Skills: Get That Job!

Course overview

Our employability skills courses cover four main aspects of key skills you need to enable to search, apply and prepare for interview. The course is flexible; you can enrol on the whole course or just the sessions you need help and support with. We are also in a unique position of having an onsite Job Shop that has many vacancies for you to access.

Getting Started – Practical planning

Have you thought about the practicalities of Employment? Getting into or back to employment is not just about getting a job – it is getting the right job in the right location and being prepared. Come and join us for some tips and ideas to make sure you are ready to go!

CV development

Are you looking for a new job? Do you want a career change? Whatever your situation, when it comes to updating and writing your CV for job applications, you should look for a way to stand out from the crowd.

Personal Statements

Personal statements are the most crucial part of getting a job, even more important than your CV. Learn the techniques that ensure your CV is read by employers.

Get the job by writing the perfect personal statement. You will learn how to write a personal statement to match a person specification. We will show you how you can highlight your transferable skills and show your enthusiasm a position. You will also score points with recruitment managers by learning how to structure your personal statement in the perfect way.

Interview skills

This course will provide you with an insight into what employers are looking for when recruiting employees. We will show you how to sell yourself and your skills in interviews. If you have not been for an interview before, or you have and you didn't get the job, try this course. You will get constructive feedback on your techniques which may help you to bag the next job. The course will help you to master nerves and show you how to use them to your advantage.
