

Introduction to Volunteering

Course overview

Are you interested in becoming a volunteer but unsure of what exactly it entails?

Have you been away from the job market for a while and would like to volunteer to build up your skills?

If yes, our volunteering courses could be for you.

This is an introduction course where you will get information about the full course and assess your functional skills levels.

The course is a pre-requisite for the full volunteering courses.

What will I study?

You will:

- be inducted into The Adult College of Barking and Dagenham and be introduced to our online learning system to access classwork and assignments from home.
- be provided with an overview of what being a volunteer entails and ascertain your functional skills levels.

Assessment method

You will complete an online assessment of your functional skills. Teachers will also assess your communication and written skills through a range of assessment methods.

Entry requirements

No specific entry requirements.

What should I bring with me?

You will need to take notes so bring along your preferred tools, such as a pen and paper or an electronic device.
