

EMPLOYABILITY - Volunteering Level 1

Course overview

---

The course aims to enable you to understand volunteering and voluntary organisations, working as a volunteer within an organisation and find out about becoming a volunteer.

You must have attended the Volunteer introduction course, prior to attending this course.

What will I study?

You will learn:

- The various types of volunteering roles
- Benefits of being a volunteer
- Rights and responsibilities of a volunteer.
- the different types of volunteering opportunities
- How to recognise your own skills, knowledge and behaviours – which you can offer an organisation
- How to select and apply for a volunteering position
- How to carry out a volunteering role
- How to evaluate your performance as a volunteer

Assessment method

---

You will produce a portfolio of evidence which will be assessed via a range of methods associated with your qualification.

You will receive verbal and written feedback by your tutor on any practical work and written assignments throughout your course.

Entry requirements

You must have attended Volunteering Introduction prior to enrolling on this course.

What should I bring with me?

---
